

Free online courses offering accreditation to supplement work set by teachers

Here are some websites that are offering free courses during the school closure.

These are available for adults of all ages, S6s who will be leaving and/or current students who might want to study in greater depth a particular area of interest to your next destination.

These courses are not designed to replace work set by your teachers.

COURSES WITH ACCREDITATION – BOOST YOUR C.V. OR SOLELY FOR INTEREST

The 8 Ivy League schools are among the most prestigious in the world. Free courses in Computing, Business, Art, Science, Social, Engineering, Maths & Personal Dev.	All OpenLearn courses are free to study. The OU offer nearly 1000 free courses in STEM, Health, History, Languages, Business, Politics & Law	The UoG offer 23 free courses including data science, fashion, art crime, basic first aid. Click on icon above to see all courses	477 courses online from Britain's Universities and other institutions. Courses in Business, Creative Arts, Politics, Literature, Healthcare, Law, History etc.

Click on the icons to be taken to the website

Interest Courses

↓

OHSC'S 100% free courses online with certificates. Courses in customer services, fashion design, social media, project management, accounting, report writing etc.	Alison has over 1000 free courses available, To get started, just choose a Subject area from IT, Language, Science, Maths, Healthcare, Skilled Trades, Excel, Marketing etc.	Reed have pulled together 40 free courses covering IT, Business, Nutrition, Book-keeping, Forensic Psychology, Food & Medicine, Cyber Security etc.	iDEA, is an international programme that helps you develop and demonstrate your digital, enterprise and employability skills for for free. Awards are available in Bronze, Silver & Gold.

Click on each image to be taken to the site

