Topic

You can use knowledge organisers to learn new vocab & make links in between subjects or ideas.

After you have retrieved as much as you can go back to your books & check what you've missed. Next time focus on that missing information

RETRIEVAL PRACTICE METHOD 3

- ✓ Low Stake Quizzes [i.e. the mark doesn't really matter and often no mark is needed at all!] are an important part of Retrieval Practice.
- ✓ Do this regularly and get friends and family to help you.
- ✓ You can write your quiz or use an online tool, like Kahoot, to put your quiz together.

RETRIEVAL PRACTICE METHOD 3

- ✓ You could write one for your friends and they can return the favour.
- ✓ Do this regularly and keep revising older course material – this is important to combat the ‘forgetting curve’
- ✓ Regular, spaced Retrieval Practice means that you can minimise panic stricken cramming in the hours before an exam.

This shows us that information we learn on Monday is quickly forgotten and lost from our memory by the following Monday!

LOW STAKES QUIZZES

- Watch this short video
- <https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=XAEKuD3hg4&t=26s>
- The pressure is off
- Create a short quiz after you've learned something in class
- Helps you to see where there are gaps in your learning
- Use our flash cards before attempting the quiz again

LION KING KAHOOT!

- Remember in the first Retrieval Practice lesson we tried a brain dump on the film the The Lion King?
- We lets see how much you remember...

OVER TO YOU...

- Create a quiz to challenge each other
- Choose a topic you or your friends may be struggling with.
- You can use cards or create your own Kahoot
